

Notice of Nominations for the Board of Directors & Supervisory Committee

Annual Meeting Date: Thursday, March 13, 2025

Mailing Address: 1040 Leigh Ave, San Jose, CA 95126

We are excited to announce that the 2025 F3 Credit Union Annual Meeting will take place on Thursday, March 13, 2025. Please mark your calendars and stay tuned for more information as the event date approaches!

As a member-owned financial institution, F3 Credit Union relies on the active involvement of our members through elected representatives who volunteer their time and expertise to guide the credit union. The Nominations Committee has now concluded the application period for Board of Directors and Supervisory Committee nominations, which were submitted via both the Nominating Committee and signed petitions.

We are pleased to present the following re-nominations and a new candidate for your consideration:

Board of Directors Re-Nominations:

- 1. Richard Silveria (Re-nominated): With over 32 years of experience as a dedicated volunteer for F3 Credit Union, Richard has held several key roles, including Credit Union Representative, Supervisory Committee Member, and Board Director. He has served two terms each as Vice-Chairperson and Chairperson. Richard is a passionate advocate for community service and has attended numerous Credit Union Director Conferences to stay current on industry trends. His extensive experience in managing large budgets, gained from his tenure at the Postal Service, has been invaluable. Richard holds an A.S. in Business Administration and is deeply committed to ensuring F3 Credit Union remains the most trusted and reliable financial organization, leveraging his years of expertise in credit union operations and board leadership.
- 2. Amritpal Singh (New Applicant): Amritpal is eager to contribute his diverse skills and experience to F3 Credit Union's growth and success. With over 20 years of experience in teaching and customer service, Amritpal is passionate about supporting the credit union's mission. He has honed his leadership and problem-solving skills, particularly in financial concepts. In his role as a supervisor at the U.S. Postal Service, Amritpal developed expertise in leadership, process improvement, and team management. These valuable skills will help F3 Credit Union enhance operational efficiency, support its growth, and deliver exceptional service to its members.

Supervisory Committee Re-Nominations:

- 1. Denise Rocchi (Re-nominated): Denise joined the Supervisory Committee in 2023 and has since contributed her extensive experience in leadership, customer service, audit management, training, and compliance. Currently serving as a Postmaster with USPS, Denise's skill set and dedication have been invaluable to the work of the Supervisory Committee.
- 2. Necki Gbler (Re-nominated): Necki became an interim member of the Supervisory Committee in 2024. With a strong educational background and diverse skill set, she holds an MBA with expertise in accounting and technology. A lifelong resident of Santa Clara County, Necki is deeply connected to the community. She has extensive experience in budgeting, cash flow management, and a solid understanding of SOX compliance and reporting.

We deeply appreciate the ongoing commitment and leadership of these dedicated individuals, and we thank them for their continued service to the Credit Union.

Your Participation: We strongly encourage all members to attend the Annual Meeting to meet the candidates, ask questions, and learn more about the future direction of the Credit Union. Your participation is vital in shaping the governance of our institution.

Should you have any questions or need further information, please feel free to reach out.

Thank you for being an integral part of the F3 Credit Union community!
